

During universal military service and municipal government in the Kingdom of Prussia, date their commencement under the auspices of these are deservedly distinguished statesmen. And, 1811, Hardenberg went so far as actually to assemble at Berlin a representative popular body, which was thus the commencement of constitutional Government in Germany.

During Napoleon's German war, (in 1813, '14, & '15) political necessity forced the Governments to encourage a liberty of the press, well

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

